Anyone who has researched some of the more extraordinary human transpersonal capabilities will be familiar with the kinds of past lives, entity encounters, OBEs, psychic episodes and so forth which Grof details. He has very good case studies, but the theoretical standpoint is what interests. He illustrates many interesting phenomena unlocked by regression or sudden experience of the transpersonal. The mind is aware of far more than we think, and human fixations can stem from perceptions many psychologists have ruled out of bounds. By resetting those bounds Grof is revealing new aspects of huma...
