Here are some celebrities that seem to fit each of the Enneagram types. The typing is probably not 100% accurate, so if you have any additions or objections to these lists, please feel free to place a comment on the blog and I will take your arguments into account. This list is subject to further updates and modifications. Ones. Julie Andrews, Harry Belafonte, Debby Boone, Lloyd Bridges, Noam Chomsky, John Cleese, Hillary Clinton, Confucius, Michael Dukakis, Anne Frank, Henry Fonda, Harrison Ford, Jodie Foster, Al Gore, Peter Graves, Katharine Hepburn, Samuel Johnson, Laura Linney, Martin Luth The Enneagram of Personality, or simply the Enneagram, is a model of the human psyche which is principally understood and taught as a typology of nine interconnected personality types. Although the origins and history of many of the ideas and theories associated with the Enneagram of Personality are a matter of dispute, contemporary Enneagram theories are principally derived from the teachings of the Bolivian psycho-spiritual teacher Oscar Ichazo from the 1950s and the Chilean psychiatrist Claudio Here are some famous people who fit the INFJ type. MUSICIANS. Taylor Swift src. There are a lot of mistypes that get reinforced by people reposting on websites without really looking into the validity of the type. For example, I have seen a number of websites that list Hitler as INFJ, but have also seen good evidence that he was actually an ENFJ. Reply. Famous INTPs. INTP. Abraham Lincoln. Friedman: "In every discipline, progress comes from people who make hypotheses, most of which turn out to be wrong, but all of which ultimately point to the right answer." [Asked if he was a libertarian:] Friedman: "I'm much more interested in having people thinking about the ideas, rather than the person." Friedman: "The proper role of government is exactly what John Stuart Mill said. The proper role of government is to prevent other people from harming an individual [and not much else]." Wales: "My style is somehow reflected in the Wikipedia style. A friend says it's a really good quality and also very infuriating that I'm so neutral all the time."
