(This story is basically the episodes with the reader written into them. Plus bonus scenes and my own original writings). You are Beth and Jerry's adopted daughter. You'd been away for the day that Rick had returned home to his daughter, and your first encounter with him isn't exactly a pleasant one. Will this drunken sociopath grow on you, and your relationship turn into something more? Or will you fight with all your might against him for the greater good of the endless universes that he could destroy? Of your adopted mother. He was an alcoholic, and the smartest man in the universe. and that's just about all he had to tell you at the moment. Apparently, he'd stumbled back into the smith's lives the day after you left for art camp. And your parents just so happened to forget about you. As the title says, this is indeed a true story. Officer Rick and the Raccoon - A True Story happened at an apartment complex on a windy day in August. It recounts the most embarrassing day in the life of a veteran police officer.
