Closures of educational institutions hamper the provision of essential services to children and communities, including access to nutritious food, affect the ability of many parents to work, and increase risks of violence against women and girls. As fiscal pressures increase, and development assistance comes under strain, the financing of education could also face major challenges, exacerbating massive pre-COVID-19 education funding gaps.Â On the other hand, this crisis has stimulated innovation within the education sector.Â But these changes have also highlighted that the promising future of learning, and the accelerated changes in modes of delivering quality education, cannot be separated from the imperative of leaving no one behind. 1.2. Higher education institution has the right to exercise the basic educational programs only if it has a corresponding license issued by the authorized federal executive authority. II.ABBREVIATED TERMS. This standard uses the following abbreviations: HPE â€“ higher education institution. The terms of mastering the core training programme at the masterâ€™s level (intra-extramural (evening), extramural or combined modes) may increase by 5 months against the time limit specified in Table 1, in accordance with the resolution issued by the Academic Council of higher education institution. Profile orientation of the core training programme at the masterâ€™s level is determined by the higher education institution implementing the educational programme for respective training.
