I. MISSION STATEMENT:

El Camino College makes a positive difference in people’s lives. We provide excellent comprehensive educational programs and services that promote student learning and success in collaboration with our diverse communities.

II. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is a chronological survey of American history from 1877 to the present, focusing on American social, intellectual, political, economic, and diplomatic institutions. Major topics include culture, ethnic and racial diversity, and the role of the United States within the context of world history.

III. COURSE PREREQUISITE:  Recommended: Eligibility for English 1A. Student need NOT have taken History101.

IV. COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. Describe and assess the process by which the United States was economically transformed and modernized in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
2. Evaluate major American political, religious, and cultural values for the 1877 to 1914 period.
3. Compare and contrast the changing demography of America from 1877 to 1914 and from 1945 to the present.
4. Determine the processes of assimilation and acculturation expected of immigrants to the United States from 1900 to the present.
5. Discuss and evaluate the interaction of majority and minority groups during the 20th century.
6. Identify and analyze the causation, sequence of events, concepts, development, and impact of various American political reform movements, such as Populism, Progressivism, the New Deal, the Fair Deal, Civil Rights, and the Great Society.
7. Conceptualize and discuss the meaning of conservatism, liberalism, and radicalism in American history from the post World War II era to the present.
8. Discuss the evolution of gender roles and evaluate the efforts and impact of feminists in the United States from 1877 through the contemporary period.
9. Summarize and analyze the development of American foreign policy since 1890, including imperial expansion and the rise of the United States as a world power and leader among a large community of nations.
10. Trace and evaluate United States diplomacy and armed conflict through isolationism, imperialism, and collective security policies of the 20th century.
11. Compare and contrast the core political and philosophical ideas and modes of expression in American culture in the 20th century.

V. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOME:

1. Upon completion of United States History 1877 to the present, students will be able to develop and persuasively argue a historical thesis in a written assignment that identifies and explains major social, economic, political and/or cultural historical themes or patterns in United States history from 1877 to the present and apply appropriate historical methods to analyze and use primary and/or secondary sources as evidence to support the thesis.

XI. ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Attendance at first class
Students who enroll in class but do not attend the first scheduled class meeting may be dropped from the roster. A student who registers for a class and never attends is still responsible for dropping the class.

2. Attendance without official enrollment
Students will not be permitted to attend classes in which they are not enrolled.

3. Attendance during semester
A student may be dropped from class when the number of hours absent exceeds 10% of the scheduled class meeting time. This rule also applies to excessive absences due to illness or medical treatment.

4. Children in Classroom
Children are not permitted in classrooms while class is in session. Attendance in class is limited to officially enrolled students and authorized visitors or guests. In addition, students must not allow children to be left unsupervised or unattended anywhere on campus.

XII. ACADEMIC HONESTY

El Camino College is dedicated to maintaining an optimal learning environment and insists upon academic honesty and adherence to standards of student conduct. To uphold the academic integrity of the institution, all members of the academic community shall assume responsibility for providing an educational environment of the highest standard characterized by academic honesty. It is the responsibility of all members of the academic community to encourage learning, promote honesty, and act with fairness.

The following misconduct shall constitute good cause for discipline, including but not limited to the removal, suspension, or expulsion of a student.

1. Cheating, plagiarism (including plagiarism in a student publication), or engaging in other academic dishonesty as defined in the College catalog.
2. Representing the words, ideas, or work of another as one’s own in any academic exercise including the use of commercial term paper companies or online sources for essays, term papers, or research papers, whether free or paid.
3. Copying from another student or former student or allowing another student to copy from one’s work.
4. Allowing another individual to assume one’s identity or assuming the identity of another individual.
5. Unauthorized collaboration-intentionally sharing or working together on an academic exercise when such actions are not approved by the course instructor.

6. Changing answers on a previously scored test, assignment, or experiment with the intent to defraud.
   1. Inventing data for the purpose of completing an assignment, a laboratory experiment, or case study analysis with the intent to defraud.
   2. Obtaining or copying exams, test questions, or other course materials when prohibited by the instructor.
   3. Giving or receiving information during an examination or test by any means such as sign language, hand signals or secret codes, or through the use of any electronic device.
   4. Using aids such as notes, calculators, or electronic devices unless specifically authorized by the instructor or District personnel.
   5. Handing in the same paper or other assignment in more than one class when prohibited by the instructor.
   6. Any other action which is not an honest reflection of a student’s own academic work.
   7. Dishonesty, forgery, alteration, or misuse of District documents, records or identification, or knowingly furnishing false information to the District.
   8. Unauthorized preparation, giving, selling, transfer, distribution, or publication, for any commercial purpose, of any contemporaneous recording of an academic presentation in a classroom or equivalent site of instruction including, but not limited to, handwritten or typed class notes, still photos, audio, or video recording except as permitted by any District policy or administrative procedure.

XIII:  ADA STATEMENT:

EL Camino College is committed to providing educational accommodations for students with disabilities upon the timely request of the student to the instructor. A student with a disability, who would like to request an academic accommodation, is responsible for identifying himself/herself to the instructor and to the Special Resources Center. To make arrangements for academic accommodations, contact the Special Resources Center at (310) 660-3925.

XIV.  DISCLAIMER STATEMENT:

Students will be notified ahead of time if and when any changes are made to the course requirements, schedule, or policies.

XV.  TURNITIN.COM FOR ESSAY SUBMITTALS

HISTORY 101 #2367
CLASS ID  9956137
CLASS PASSWORD: EVERLY

Turnitin.com Instructions and Information

The papers for this class will be submitted via Turnitin.com and in hard copy to the instructor.

Write your papers using standard programs, such as MS Word, or create a PDF file.

Turnitin software will scan your papers to determine the degree to which you may have copied the work of others. Be sure to put what you learn in your own words. If your paper contains plagiarized material, you will receive little or no credit for the entire paper.

After submitting a paper, Turnitin will generate an “Originality Report” in a few minutes. Acceptable work should be in the “blue” or “green” range – not red, orange, or yellow – and there should be no large sections of text that are identified as copied. In other words, possibly copied text should be short quotations or phrases and spread throughout the paper.

After submitting a paper, you will have the opportunity to view the “Originality Report” and use it to identify the problematic parts of your paper. You may then revise and resubmit your paper. (To resubmit, just follow the instructions for submitting the paper again.) Your instructor will only get to see your paper on the due date for the paper, so he will only see the last version of the paper that was uploaded into Turnitin.com.

Creating a Turnitin.com Account

If you have used Turnitin.com in another class, then you already have an account and can skip these instructions.

If you have never used Turnitin.com to submit a paper in another class, then you must first create an account. Click on the create account link at the top of the Turnitin.com webpage, and follow the instructions.

1) Click “Student”
2) Enter class ID number
3) Enter class Password
4) Create your own Password
5) Answer a security question
6) Click agreement to terms of usage

Enrolling in the Class in Turnitin.com

If you already have a Turnitin account, you must “enroll” yourself in History 101 to access the assignments for appropriate submittal/uploading.

1. Log into Turnitin.
2. Click on the enroll in a class tab on the student homepage.
3. Enter the class ID and enrollment password for the class:
4. Click submit to enroll in the class and add it to the student user homepage.

Submitting a Paper in Turnitin.com

To submit a paper:

1. Click on the name of the class.
2. Click on the Submit button to the right of the assignment name.
3. Select single file upload from the choose a paper submission method pull down menu.
4. Click the Browse button and select the file to upload. Fill in the submission title field with the name of the paper.
5. Click upload to upload the file. A status bar will appear displaying the upload progress.
6. Review the preview panel. This is a text only version of the paper being uploaded. Confirm that it is the correct version of the file to send. (The complete paper with formatting will be uploaded and will be available to you and the instructor in Turnitin.)
7. Click the submit button.
8. After the submission has been completed, a digital receipt is displayed on screen. A copy is also sent via e-mail to the address that was used as your login. Save the receipt and the paper ID it contains: this is your proof of a completed submission.

Viewing the Originality Report for Your Paper

After submitting a paper, Turnitin will automatically generate an “Originality Report”. After submitting the report, click on the Class Portfolio tab on the upper left and you will see that your paper is “processing”. It may take some time – it will take minutes (10 minutes or more), not hours; be patient. To view the Originality Report for your paper, click on the bar underneath the “Similarity” heading.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is not tolerated in any form, whether intentional or unintentional.

Plagiarism (“copying”) is presenting someone else’s work as your own. Altering a few words here and there does not make the work your own, nor does eliminating, adding, or switching the order of a few sentences or clauses. It is still copying. Make sure that you present the information in your own words. You may use quotes (“ ”) to indicate where you have used someone else’s material, but do not let your work become a string of quotes without any of your own analysis.

Copying without attribution is still stealing someone else’s work and claiming it as your own. It is lying about your own efforts and understanding.

The course is a hands-on, research-level introduction to the areas of computer science that have a direct relevance to journalism, and the broader project of producing an informed and engaged public. We study two big ideas: the application of computation to produce journalism (such as data science for investigative reporting), and journalism about areas that involve computation (such as the analysis of credit scoring algorithms.)
